

How FullServiceMarina.com Benefits Boat Owners

More time on the water

You can finally schedule your boat launch online. Add fuel, ice, bait, or drinks to your request with one click.

Direct communication with marina staff

The marina staff including forklift operator can now instantly receive your requests on their smart phone or tablet. No more guessing if your request was received.

Instant notifications from your marina

Receive instant notifications via email or text when your marina has received or fulfilled your requests. You'll know exactly when your boat is ready.

Do you know where your boat is?

Go online to view the current location of your boat at the marina... anytime day or night with no restrictions.
